RALLY GUIDE

(as at 18 September 2026)

1 Int. ADMV-Lausitz-Rallye – Three. Two.. One... Gravel

Noisy engines, hot tires, and a challenge to every pilot on the best-prepared gravel roads in Germany ... that's the Lausitz-Rallye - the ultimate gravel rally in Germany and Central Europe with unique almost 100% gravel roads where every Rally Fan - and those who want to be – gets grass, dust and mud may fly around his ears.

Top drivers from Germany and 38 other European countries have a hard nut to crack on our perfectly prepared stages. We have already seen involuntary water crossings, jumps where the distance measurers almost capitulated, drifts on the edge of physics and smoking timekeepers. Each team is fighting bitterly for every tenth of a second and challenges material and vehicle.

For the 29th time from 5th until 7th November 2026 around Boxberg/O.L. is the motto Tree.Two..One... Gravel. This event provides top-class motorsport. The FIA European Rally Trophy (ERT), the FIA Junior ERT and the FIA Master ERT Trophy have international status. After 12 years the Lausitz-Rallye is part of the German Rally Championship (DRM) and the German DMSB Gravel-Rally-Cup, the ADMV-Rallye-Championship, the Gravel-Cup and the Saxon Rally Championship of will also stop in Lausitz again. Also the RG318is-Cup comes back into the Lausitz.

The ARENA, which is unique in Germany, is a spectacular highlight for drivers and spectators equally for eleven years. On natural grandstands the spectators line the artificially created crest downhill, the crest followed by a drift curve and a water crossing. You have to experience the gravel stones crackling in the fenders of the rally cars and the top pilots heading towards the curves, braking hard as late as possible and heaving their racing cars around the bend in a breathtaking drift angle. In the next moment they speed away in the forest with a dull babble.

After eight years, the service area is moving from "Sternencamp Bärwader See" to the former bus station for the power plant. There also will be the trailer parking area. The rally headquarter with rally secretariat is placed as in the last years in the tourist information centre (TIZ) "Bärwalder See" on the shores of the Bärwalder See.

The media center will be placed in rooms of the Municipal administration of Boxberg O.L. Administrative checks and scrutineering of the competition cars will be carried out in the fire station of the voluntary fire brigade in Boxberg/O.L. The starting shot for this year's edition will be on Friday, 6th October 2026 at 15:30 o'clock at the Municipal administration of Boxberg O.L., Südstraße 4, where also the first rally car will roll over the finish ramp on Saturday, 7th November 2026 approx. 17:34 o'clock and the winners will be announced received their crowns and trophies at the podium ceremony. The official award ceremony takes place in the hall of the Findlingspark Nochten.

The first leg – two special stages Circuit course with 21,49 km SS are to be driven on Friday. On Saturday are still 3 different special stages which must each be completed twice with a total of 110,98 km SS on the program.

At this stage we would like to thank our local authority Boxberg/O.L. in advance, especially our new mayor Mr. Hendryk Balko and the local councils for their generous assistance in the preparation of our event. Also the voluntary fire brigades from municipality Boxberg/O.L. are secure partners since the first Lausitz-Rallye. Already many thanks!

2 History and facts of the Lausitz-Rallye

2.1 History of the Lausitz-Rallye

The 1st Lausitz-Rallye on 11th of November 2000 was the beginning of a new age of motor sport around Boxberg/O.L. It was a 100% gravel rally.

At the beginning the Lausitz-Rallye was a Rally 200 with 35 km special stages but it took a rapid development. Already the 4th Lausitz-Rallye was a “2 in 1 Even” – with a National A and a Rally 200 category.

As sign of appreciation for our continuous organisational work and because of the excellent conditions of Germany's best gravel stages, we received the approval to host the final round of the German Rally Championship in 2004.

With a „Small Lausitz Rallye“, a Rallye 200, the Rallye-Renn- & Wassersport Club Lausitz e.V. in the ADMV has hosted the ultimate gravel experience for amateur drivers in the summers of 2013 and 2014.

The ADMV-Lausitz-Rallye has also earned an excellent international reputation. By now, besides the 1.284 German competitors, 817 drivers and co-drivers from 38 nations have participated at least once at the ADMV-Lausitz-Rally, many teams several times. A run for the European Rally Trophy has been announced since 2015. The Final of the European Historic Sporting Rally Championship has been the highlight at the 20th anniversary of the ADMV-Lausitz-Rally. So the ADMV-Lausitz-Rallye is the second most important rally in Germany next to the ADAC Rally Germany. With the final round of the FIA Rally Star, a junior series advertised and supported worldwide by the FIA, participants from all continents rolled over the starting ramp in Lausitz for the first time in 2023.

2.5 The Region

(Source: Internet)

2.5.1 Municipality Boxberg/O.L.

Boxberg/O.L. was first documented in 1366. Boxberg/O.L. is divided into 18 districts. 4.185 residents live on 217 km² (as at 31.12.2025). They thus are forming the largest area community of the Free State of Saxony. In confined spaces the municipality Boxberg/O.L. offers utmost diversity – scenic, architectural, technical and human.

Despite decades of lignite mining the town still lies in one of the most densely wooded areas in Germany. The unique heathland with the floodplains of the rivers Spree and Schwarzer Schöps, as well as industrial sites, such as lignite-fired power plant and strip mining’s exude a special charm that is difficult not to succumb. In deep pine forests you can observe wild wolves who settled here again in recent years. Idyllic meadows, streams, rivers and lakes invite every visitor to relax.

The largest lake in Saxony – the “Bärwalder See” is in the northwest of the 217 km² area of the municipal area I. It has an area of 13 km² and is increasingly developing as a sailing and surfing paradise. Athletes, visitors and guests will appreciate the good surrounding conditions and infrastructure in and around the “Landscape Park Bärwalder See”. This undoubtedly includes the 21.1 km long paved path around the lake with a connection to the neighbouring cities Boxberg/O.L., Klitten and Uhyst and the port on Klitten shore or boat docks in Boxberg/O.L. and in Uhyst.

Beautiful sandy beaches arisen for the swimmers are at all locations - Boxberg/O.L., Uhyst and Klitten. At the beach of Boxberg/O.L. next to the textile beach there is an area for nudists. 26 “floating houses” on the bank of Klitten and the holiday homes in the new Skan Park invite you to spend a holiday on and by the water.

RALLY GUIDE

(as at 18 September 2026)

But Boxberg/O.L. has more highlights – amongst others the largest human ear modelled from sand masses. You can pass it on a loop road of approximately 1,000 m and you will have a beautiful view over the Bärwalder See. In the pinna is located an amphitheatre with 270 seats. In the summer months numerous cultural events take place there. The last of 26 “Floating houses” were installed on the water side of Klitten and they invite to spend the holidays on water.

Further information about the “Bärwalder See” you find here www.baerwalder-see.eu

On a guided tour through the lignite power station Boxberg/O.L. operated by the LEAG (Lausitz Energie Kraftwerke AG), you can gaze at the modern technology and its enormous dimensions. The working in base load operation power plant originally went with 3,520 MW at the start. Already in 1968 here was laid the foundation for well into the 90's in Germany's largest lignite power plant. In the period from 1992 to 1995 the two 500-megawatt blocks (plant III) were retrofitted with the latest environmental technology and upgraded for an indefinite continued operation. The 12 x 210 megawatt plants (plant I and II) were gradually shut down and built back. As part of a replacement a 900-megawatt single-unit plant was built. This is feeding safe and highly efficient lignite electricity into the grid since 2000. Due to rising energy demand, it became necessary to build a 640 megawatt block once again.

Architecturally enthusiastic visitors should in any case visit the grist wooden chapel (Schrotholzkapelle) built in 1780 in Sprey, the castles in Uhyst and Bärwalde, and the estates of Kringelsdorf, Mönau and Reichwalde. In the district Uhyst, families may marvel at the Reptile House and the Safari Wildlife Park.

In the district Nochten Lausitzn Findling Park, that is unique in Europe, invites nature lovers to linger. The bike paths Spreeradweg, Herrmannsdorfer Radweg and Wolf Radwanderweg offer a light reaching of destinations.

(as at 18 September 2026)

Safari- Wildrevier Uhyst

The Wild Safari Park is located in an interesting post-mine landscape. Here you can feed and caress real lamas, go on a jeep tour or face deer very close. In addition to classic jeep safaris and night safaris, observations from a high seat or track search are offered in winter. Project and hiking days can be booked by schools; anniversaries can be celebrated there on request, which means beautiful hours in nature with the entire birthday bevy. Gift certificates with a safari plus feeding are a nice present for families or friends. Since 2023, overnight stays have also been possible in safari lodges located in the game park grounds, right by the lake. The holiday homes are located in a large, fenced wild meadow area with views of the lake and the game park. The beach is just 50 meters away.

Lausitzer Bergbaumuseum Energiefabrik Knappenrode

Located just outside the town of Hoyerswerda - between Knappenrode and Silbersee - is the former briquetting plant Knappenrode. From 1918-1993 briquettes were pressed here. Today, visitors can experience the mining of yesterday, today and tomorrow of the Lausitz Mining Museum on an approximately 250,000 m² area. In one of the many exhibition complexes, the largest shaft frame of the Lausitz that symbolises the underground mining can be seen.

Waldeisenbahn Muskau

The beginnings of Muskau Forest Railway dates back to 1895. At this time the rich forests and natural resources of Muskau arch were opened and at the end of the 19th century lignite mines, brickyards, sawmills, paper mills and glass factories were created in the area between Muskau and Weißwasser that have been connected with a Pferdebahn with 600 mm gauge built by the Muskau lordship, Count Hermann von Arnim. 1991, the District Office Weißwasser decided to rebuild the forest railway with the help of grants and job creation schemes as a tourist attraction again. 1992 the line already went back into operation to the park community Kromlau, initially with diesel locomotives from disused industrial railways and for passenger converted open wagons. In the own workshop also covered cars emerged.

Fürst Pückler Park Bad Muskau and Kromlauer Park

The Muskauer Park offers extraordinary natural experiences: sprawling lawns, majestic trees, winding paths, picturesque lakes and rivers, unique bridges and buildings. You can explore this paradise on foot, by horse-drawn carriage, bike or boat. What appears as naturally grown, is created by a firm hand landscape - a garden artwork of Prince Hermann von Pückler-Muskau. In summer 2004 the landscape of art of the Prince has been included in the list of world cultural heritage by UNESCO.

In the neighboring village of Bad Muskau, another park was created in 1844 by landowner von Röttschke and extended from 1889 by Graf von und zu Egloffstein. This had also provided the park with a large collection of azaleas and rhododendron cultivars. Today the Kromlau Park with its unique arch bridge over the Rakotzsee is the largest free range rhododendron park in Germany.
